

Ref. No. 9.1/Regis./swc-odd sem/21-1

Date: 9th January, 2022

NOTICE

1. The University has already published the 21st List SWC containing the names of the students who were granted waiver of their semester fees. Please note that students will get full waiver on their semester fees (50% of the fees will be borne by the University and the remaining 50% by the respective colleges/institutes). All students whose names appeared in those lists may be allowed to appear in the odd semester examination, 2021-22.

2. Some applications were received individually from students as well as from the colleges/institutes. Those applications are under process. All those students whose parents expired after they had got admitted to the affiliated colleges/institutes may be allowed to fill up the examination forms and allowed to sit in the odd Semester, 2021-22.

3. In case of candidates who have lost both of the parents, the University may waive the examination fees of these candidates. Appropriate proof should be attached along with the examination forms.

4. Colleges/Institutions authorities are requested to ensure that no candidates should suffer who belong to an economically weaker section.
